

1 Question 1: 9 marks (1+1+1+1+2+1+2)

From paragraph 1

- (a) One word which shows that Grandma and Dewey had been on the boat before

Accept:

back

N.B: Wrong spelling or ^{excess}access material denies the mark. If word is in a sentence, it must be shown by positioning, underlining or highlighting.

[1]

From paragraph 5

- (b) Where the stretch of grass was beyond the (long treeless) bank // further from / ^{further} after / ^{further} than

Accept:

[1]

From paragraph 6

- (c) Why it was necessary for ~~for~~ Dewey 'to stay awake and alert'

Accept:

so that he would not ^{miss}pass the cabin / so that he would ^{notice spot}see the cabin /
Give 0 for a lift of '... it would not do to pass it by' ^{It would not do to pass the cabin}

[1]

From paragraph 7

- (d) Seven consecutive words which show that Dewey and Grandma were not related to the Dargans

Accept:

'as if they were his own kin'

N.B: Wrong spelling or ^{excess}access material denies the mark. If phrase is in a sentence, it must be shown by positioning, underlining or highlighting.

[1]

Q

- (e) From paragraph 9
Two reasons why Dewey was so excited to get to the Dargans' place.

Accept:

1. He would get a good/hot supper (from Mrs Dargan) he would good hot supper
2. He would sleep on a soft/sweet smelling grass mattress (in the loft.)
+ sweet smelling grass mattress

Answers can come in any order

[2]

- (f) From paragraph 11
Possible reason why Charlie, the male dog, is referred to as 'he' not 'it'

Accept:

He is part of the family / they had become close / he talks to the dog as he would to a human being.

Give 0 for: because he is a male dog

[1]

- (g) From paragraph 18
Two different reasons why Grandma is looking forward to time with Mrs Dargan.

Accept:

1. Mrs Dargan would teach Grandma a new crocheting pattern
2. Grandma would chat (happily) with Mrs Dargan answers can come in any order.

[2]

2 Question 2: (11 marks) (2+1+1+1+1+5)

- (a) From paragraph 22
The meaning of 'angled awkwardly.'

Accept:

angled - bent/slanted/elbowed / tilted / inclined / leaning / sloping / tipped awkwardly - clumsily / ungainly / ungracefully / gracelessly / inelegantly / queerly / oddly weirdly / strangely / unusually

[2]

- (b) (i) From paragraph 35
reference of the word 'her'
Accept:
the raft/ (small) boat/ the Rosey B / canoe / barge
- [1]

- (ii) From paragraph 37 39
How was the raft moving at this stage?
Accept:
It was moving easily/ ~~without stopping~~ / without effort/ effortlessly/without difficulty/ smoothly (and quietly). / on its own // drifting
O = floating
- [1]

- (c) From paragraph 41
Reason for the boy's impatience
Accept:
There were too many instructions/commands from Grandma. / He was ^{annoyed} irritated by Grandma's (numerous) commands. / Grandma was ^{nagging} ~~pestering~~ him. _{bothering}
- O = boring
- [1]

- (d) From paragraph 43
A characteristic displayed by Grandma in paragraph 43
Accept:
Pomposity/vanity/self-importance/boastfulness/ conceit/superiority/showing off
Accept adjectives of the above words e.g.
She is pompous/vain/proud/boastful/showy / full of herself / braggy pride
- [1]

$$\begin{array}{r} 13 \\ 3 \\ \hline 28 \\ 18 \\ \hline 46 \end{array}$$

$$\begin{array}{r} 136 \\ 28 \\ 8 \\ \hline 06 \end{array}$$

020056
W 5

✓

From the whole passage

(c)

Word	Meaning	Zero response
1. poled (paragraph 1)	rowed/ paddled/ pulled steered/ oared / maneuvered drove /guided/ propelled pushed	pulled
2. glare (paragraph 10)	blaze/glow/brilliance/ shine/light/dazzle/ brighten ed s /sparkle sharp reflection
3. securely (paragraph 11)	tightly/firmly/strongly fast
4. scratched (paragraph 33)	Grazed/moved roughly rubbed/scrapped
5. fiddle around (paragraph 38)	play (around) toy (around) mess (around) fool (around) dawdled/ dilly-dallied loiter/waste time/delay linger/harry
6. scrambled up (paragraph 42)	moved with difficulty/ moved on all fours/ clambered/ crawled scrabbled/ scaled
7. erect (paragraph 42)	Straight/ upright /vertical unbowed
8. straining (paragraph 45)	Struggling/ trying hard/ labouring/ with much effort/ using much strength / striving

13
18
[5] 31

26 +12
38
17 23
13 30
224

Summary points

3 Calling out to Mr Dargan, Dewey came to the trees and

1. he began to run more slowly

2. then he walked

3. then he stood perfectly still.

4. suddenly, he had a feeling that something was terribly wrong

4. ~~he felt like turning and running back~~ to the raft ^{both limbs head to score}

5. ~~he sensed the smell of smoke in the air~~

5. ~~he felt~~ sensed an unnatural stillness ^{line lift from he wanted} beyond — raft. (scores)

N.B: Line lift denies the mark — from There was — trees

6. slowly, he walked to the trees

7. his throat was so dry (he could not swallow) / he was frightened

8. he pushed through the low branches

9. what he saw in the clearing made him close his eyes / he closed his eyes

10. he walked forward

11. he stepped to where the entrance had been O = he stepped to the entrance.

12. he knelt as if in prayer

13. and he felt the log

14. he turned it gingerly

15. and he felt it again

16. ~~he felt a faint warmth (beneath the log / doorframe)~~
 16. ~~Dewey guessed the cabin had been burnt about the previous two days~~

17. he suddenly felt cold with fear (both limbs needed to score)

18. he rose slowly

19. he surveyed the ruins

20. he looked with dread for some sign of his parents

21. his shoulders suddenly felt heavy and tired (both limbs needed to score)

couldn't 5
 18
 23
 4
 11
 18
 17
 146
 15
 21
 118
 17
 14

SECTION B: SUPPORTING LANGUAGE STRUCTURES (10 MARKS)

- 4 (a) (i) Accept:
patience

disregard other spelling errors

[1]

- (ii) Accept:
relived

[1]

- (b) (i) Accept: ^{recklessly}
Dewey's grandmother carelessly threw her spectacles into her satchel.

[1]

- (ii) Accept:
Dewey stepped close to where the exit of the cabin had been.

[1]

- (c) (i) Accept:
On seeing the burnt Dargans' homestead, Dewey felt heartbroken.

NB award correct spellings
[1]

- (ii) Accept:
The silence around the Dargans' place was so threatening that Dewey almost ran away.

325 x 6

150
[1]

- (d) (i) Accept: <sup>subject
name</sup>
Hinges is used as a noun (to refer to flat metal pieces that hang the door to the door frame)

8 6
15
14

29
[1]

- (ii) Accept: ^{an action word}
^{doing verb}
 Hinges is used as a verb (to mean depends on)

[1]

- (e) Accept:
 What a lovely house! shows Dewey's appreciation/admiration of the beauty of the house, whereas What a lovely house? shows that Grandma does not agree with Dewey that the house is a lovely/beautiful one/ shows Grandma's reservations to Dewey's comment that the house is a lovely one/
 N.B: Award 1 mark to each limb of the answer.

complimenting

complimenting = 0Grandma is expressing doubt / disbelief / incredulity Skepticism

[2]